

Walgreens is invested in and committed to Chicago's ongoing health and well-being efforts, improving access to healthcare and the city's overall economic growth and development.

Healthcare

- Raised hundreds of thousands of dollars annually through corporate, employee and customer donations with organizations including:

- Administered hundreds of flu shots and provided free flu shot vouchers to many CommunityHealth Chicago patients, in addition to local flu clinics and thousands of vouchers provided to community partners in recent years

Education

- Partnered with the Midtown Educational Foundation for 25 years and more recently, Skills for Chicagoland Future to help address educational achievement disparities and job skills gaps in low income communities
- Walgreens helping to fund $500,000 worth of school supplies annually through WE Teachers program; select Chicago teachers among award recipients nationally
- Awarded thousands of dollars in pharmacy school scholarships to minority students from Chicago as part of Walgreens national efforts to provide opportunities for aspiring pharmacists
- Created the Expressions Art Challenge to encourage high school students to find their authentic voice and make healthy lifestyle choices

Community Support

- Investing $35 million to re-open Chicago stores that had been damaged and temporarily closed following events this past summer
- Donated a combined $100,000 to Chicago Urban League and My Block, My Hood, My City to support efforts for racial justice and advance our commitment to diversity and inclusion
- Invested in downtown Chicago with a new Walgreens office space at the Old Post Office for up to 1,800 full-time employees to help keep team members and jobs in the city
- Led fundraising through Red Nose Day at Walgreens to support local programs for children living in poverty, including those in Chicago. Local efforts include:
 - Early childhood education and after school support
 - Nutrition and healthcare
 - Shelter and safety for youth experiencing homelessness
